

Liquid Level Gages

- Protected vent in cap minimizes the risk of dust, dirt or moisture inside the gage
- Revolve brass shield to allow convenient positioning
- Quick response using large vent holes for fast and accurate liquid level response
- Adjustable O rings can be used to mark high-low levels
- Sights made with easy to clean durable gage glass
- Optional polycarbonate sight to minimize risk of breakage

Overview

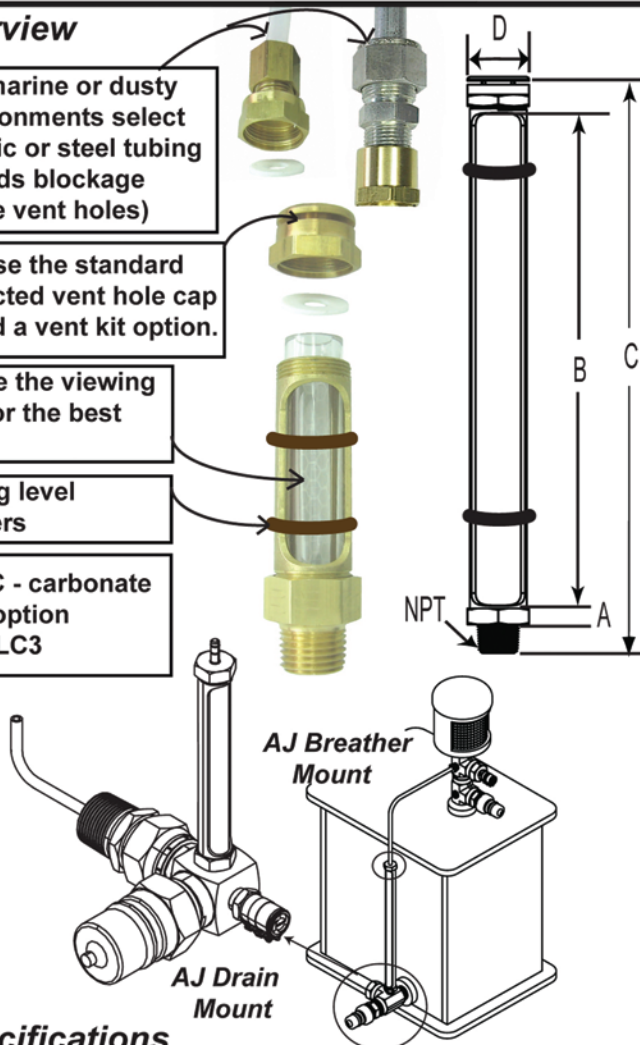

For marine or dusty environments select plastic or steel tubing (avoids blockage of the vent holes)

Choose the standard protected vent hole cap or add a vent kit option.

Rotate the viewing slot for the best angle

O Ring level markers

Add C - carbonate tube option eg. GLC3
